

TABLE OF CONTENTS.

	Page
I. The Washington Light Infantry, 1807-1861, deeds of, roster of, and monument to dead of	I
II. Imboden's Dash into Charlestown. By Captain F. M. Berkeley.....	II
III. Gordon's Assault on Fort Stedman. By General James A. Walker	19
IV. Battle of Antietam or Sharpsburg. By Captain J. M. Garnett, Alexander Hunter, and Alexander Robert Chisholm	32
V. A Chapter of History—Meeting of General R. Taylor with General E. R. S. Canby.....	48
VI. Battle of Fort Gregg. By Captain A. L. Jones.....	56
VII. Battle of Winchester. By Capt. J. M. Garnett.....	61
VIII. The Confederate States Flag. Its Evolution. By General W. L. Cabell.....	68
IX. Passing of the Monitor Scorpion	71
X. First Shot in the War. By Major Wade Hampton Gibbes.	73
XI. Last Capital of the Confederacy at Danville, Va. (See xxxviii.).....	80
XII. Robert E. Lee. Speech of Hon. Don P. Halsey in the Senate of Virginia to provide a statue of, to be placed in Statuary Hall, Washington, D. C.....	81

XIII.	How the South got Chemicals and Medicines During the War. By Prof. John W. Mallett.....	100
XIV.	In a Louisiana Regiment, Organization of the 13th Louisiana in 1861; vivid picture of the period. By General John McGrath.....	103
XV.	The Brunswick Guards, Company H, 53d Virginia Infantry, roster of. By George E. Mitchell	120
XVI.	General John H. Morgan, an Account of his Death. By Colonel John W. Scully.....	125
XVII.	Closing Scenes of the War. Retreat of General Custis Lee's Division, and the Battle of Sailors' Creek. By Captain McHenry Howard.....	129
XVIII.	Confederate Currency, the best collection of, description of all issues of.	145
XIX.	Biographical Sketch of Major-General P. R. Cleburne. By General W. H. Hardee.....	151
XX.	Zollicoffer's Oak. Recollections of the Battle of Mill Springs and death of General Zollicoffer. His place of burial. By Colonel Bennett H. Young.....	165
XXI.	New Market Day at Virginia Military Institute. Monument to the Boy Heroes unveiled. Addresses of Dr. John A. Upshur and Captain John S. Wise, and Threnody by A. C. Gordon.....	173
XXII.	Company C, 37th Virginia Infantry, roster and history of..	185
XXIII.	Confederate Generals and Lieutenant-Generals Passing Away. By Rev. J. William Jones, D. D. (See xli.)....	189
XXIV.	Captain Don P. Halsey, C. S. A. A gallant officer, accomplished scholar, and able lawyer. Sketch of a noble life. By Hon. D. P. Halsey (Jr.).....	193
XXV.	The Sword of Robert Lee. By Father A. J. Ryan.....	208
XXVI.	Maryland and the South. The Aid of the State to the Confederacy. By Mrs. D. Giraud Wright.....	209

CONTENTS.

v

XXVII.	Negroes in the Confederate States Army. Their enlistment advocated by General P. R. Cleburne.....	215
XXVIII.	Pickett's Charge at Gettysburg; he "in the front." By Captain Robert A. Bright.....	228
XXIX.	Georgia's Flag. Replaced Stars and Stripes before Sumter was fired on.....	235
XXX.	Recollections of Army Life with General Lee. Privations and necessities of the Confederate soldier. By Frank H. Foote.....	237
XXXI.	Hunter Holmes McGuire, M. D., LL. D. Unveiling a statue of, in the Capitol Square, Richmond, Va., January 1904. Ceremonies and Addresses of Honorables George L. Christian and Holmes Conrad, and acceptance by Governor A. J. Montague	248
XXXII.	Burning of Chambersburg, Pa. Noble conduct of Colonel W. E. Peters. By General John McCausland.....	266
XXXIII.	Battle of the Crater, July 30, 1864. Roster of members of the 12th Virginia Infantry, who were engaged.....	271
XXXIV.	History of the Crenshaw Battery, with its engagements and roster. By Charles P. Young and Captain Thos. Ellett..	275
XXXV.	The Battle of Shiloh, April 6, 1862. By Captain James Dinkins.....	298
XXXVI.	City 25th Battalion (Richmond), roster of officers of.....	323
XXXVII.	The First Marine Torpedoes were made in Richmond, Va., and Used in James River. By Colonel R. L. Maury.....	326
XXXVIII.	Last Confederate Capital at Danville, Va., President Davis confident to the last of triumph, last cabinet meeting and proclamation of. By B. Boisseau Bobbitt	334
XXXIX.	North Carolina and Virginia, in the War 1861-65, and troops furnished by each. Report of History Committee of the Grand Camp C. V. of Virginia. By Hon. George L. Christian.....	340

- XL. The Army Negro. His affection and fidelity—master and slave congenial. By Captain George Baylor... 365
- XLI. Rank, Respectively, in the U. S. and C. S. Armies, and pay of officers and soldiers of the latter..... 369
- XLII. Fort Gregg Again. A defense of its garrison. By Surgeon George W. Richards..... 370
- XLIII. The Hypodermic Syringe First Used in the C. S. Army.... 372

ERRATA.

Page 32, line 17, for Loudon, read Loudoun.

Page 36, line 6, for condiment, read sauce.

Page 47, line 2, for are, read have.

Page 156, line 24, for Pope, read L. E. Polk.